9:30 am – 10:45 am  CM   1.50  #9249113	The ABCs of Transitioning to Electric Buses Transit agencies across the nation are planning to transition their fleets to electric buses. However, there are many important factors that must be considered during the planning, procurement, and implementation phases. FTA Region 1 staff will provide some general information and lessons learned related to coordination with utility companies, independent electric power systems such as microgrids, procurement options, leasing, infrastructure considerations, charging options, training, and more. FTA will provide a brief presentation and then answer questions from the audience and initiate open discussion on topics of interest related to this very important, emerging technology.  Presenters: Federal Transit Administration Region 1  Syed Ahmed, General Engineer, FTA Region 1  Michelle Daigle, General Engineer, FTA Region 1  Math Keamy, Director - Office of Project Management and Oversight, FTA Region 1  National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA)  Bristol B  Learn how to make NEPA a productive, value-added process for your projects. We will review essential NEPA steps, show you where to find and how to use online resources, and present examples of projects which used NEPA effectively to inform the public and consider alternatives and impacts during project development  Presenter: Eric Papetti, Program Manager, Federal Transit Administration Region 1
9:30 am – 10:45 am	Managing The New Workforce  Today's workplace is unique. Never has there been a workplace so diverse in so many ways. Managers are increasingly grappling with generational differences in their staff. Problems can arise from differing
CM 1.25 #9249114	mindsets and communication styles of workers born in different generations. The frictions may be aggravated by new technology and work patterns that mix workers of different ages in ever-changing teams. The leadership skills that worked in "old story" organizations will not work with today's employees. Managers must take care not to disadvantage older workers or those younger workers just entering the workplace. This program is about changing the way we lead to harness the energies of a diverse group of individuals to produce high performance outcomes.  Presenter: Martha Bryan, Bryan & Bryan Associates
10: 45 am	Coffee/Tea Transition Break Outside of Meeting Rooms
11:15 am – 12:30 pm	Breakout Sessions continue after transition break

NorthEast Passenger Transportation TRANSPORTATION CONFERENCE & EXPO WARWICK, RHODE ISLAND I JUNE 29 & 30, 2022

Thursday, June 30, 2022
Location: Crowne Plaza Hotel, Warwick, Rhode Island
8:00 am	Registration Open
8:00 am – 9:00 am	Breakfast
9:15 am – 10:30 am	For years continued conversation within the industry has been focused on electric vehicles, many agencies aiming to reach the goal of full transition to a zero-emissions fleet. All of these changes to energy impacts infrastructure, funding, need for additional changes and adding services such as charging stations, removal of tanks, storage for batteries, and so much more. Session attendees will learn about the real-life implementation of electric vehicle/zero emission technology. Presenters will discuss lessons learned from current operations and services including successes and failures, proving their perspective on the future of electric vehicles. Panel Discussion to be announced.
9:15 am – 10:30 am  APA  CM   1.25  #9249117	How to Use Community Coalitions to Expand Transit Options  Do you have ideas about how you would like to expand transit options in your service area but wonder if you have enough community support to make it happen? A coalition is a group of people and organizations coming together to achieve a common goal and working to influence others for positive outcomes to solve a specific problem. A coalition can accomplish a broad range of goals beyond the capacity of a single organization. It can help build bridges across sectors and generate opportunities for shared solutions. This workshop will address how participants can use a coalition to address competing transportation options that duplicate services; developing new transportation options (new service, expanded hours, volunteer programs); solving ongoing service area issues (getting people to opioid treatment centers; solving food deserts; getting people to advanced medical treatment; passing a mill levy to support public transportation; expanding workforce transportation options; and more!) Easterseals has been building coalitions for over 15 years in communities all across the U.S. Find out how to make one work for you!  Presenter: Carol Wright, Co-Director of the National Aging and Disability Transportation Center and Assistant Vice-President of Transportation and Mobility, Easter Seals

NorthEast Passenger Transportation TRANSPORTATION CONFERENCE & EXPO WARWICK, RHODE ISLAND I JUNE 29 & 30, 2022

11:15 am – 12:30 pm	Breakout Sessions Thursday, June 30 continues
11:15 am – 12:30 pm  APA  CM   1.50  #9249119	Voluntary Outreach Programs for Public Transportation Stakeholders – Transportation Security Administration (TSA)  BASE, EXIS, RMAST, SETA are outreach programs as part of a security partnership evolution. With all of the new safety and security requirements implemented and coming soon, join partners from the TSA Risk Based Security (RBS) to learn about the national strategy for performing risk mitigation available to transit providers. This session will cover several training and exercise opportunities that are available at no cost to the transit provider that can help you evaluate your state of readiness and identify strategic areas of training and capital investment based on the unique characteristics of each transit system. Members of TSA will present information on First Observer Plus ™ security awareness training program to promote surface transportation security within the United States. The training program explores the justifications and motives offered by terrorist and identifies various stages and possible indicators of a threat.  Presenter: Mark Cacciolfi, MEP, Surface Transportation Security Inspector DHS/TSA
11:15 am – 12:30 pm	Recruiting and Retaining Bus Drivers  We cannot offer great service if we do not have great employees to depend on to provide that service to our customers. Many of us live in areas where it is difficult to find drivers to fill our openings, and when we do, we are not always happy with the results. We also need to compete in many markets with other employers who can pay higher wages than our agencies can afford. So how can we recruit and retain good employees that will be engaged in their work and want to stay with our agency? This workshop will provide strategies for driver recruitment and best practices in retaining our best employees over the long run.  Presenter: Carol Wright, Co-Director of the National Aging and Disability Transportation Center and Assistant Vice-President of Transportation and Mobility, Easter Seals
11:15 am – 12:30 pm  APA  CM 2.0  #9249118	Emotional Intelligence in Today's Workplace  Effective managers and employees not only have a high degree of self-awareness, and they also know how to use their self-awareness to improve the quality of their relationships and help get the job done They have enhanced emotional awareness and self-management. Their skills help them identify emotions, understanding emotions, and managing emotions even in very stressful situations in both self and others. This program covers theory, knowledge, and practical skills needed to apply emotions intelligence to specific situations to gain success with others.
